

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.”
2 Corinthians 9:7,8

THOUGHTS FOR THE MONTH

IMITATING JESUS' HUMILITY

Don't push your way to the front; don't sweet-talk your way to the top. Put yourself aside, and help others get ahead. Don't be obsessed with getting your own advantage. Forget yourselves long enough to lend a helping hand.

Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of himself. He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death—and the worst kind of death at that—a crucifixion. Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honoured him far beyond anyone or anything... Philippians 2 (MSG)

Jesus' nature was characterised by humility. As we read above, Paul the apostle encourages us to serve one another in love. If we have ambition to be great then we must become a great servant, causing others to be blessed by our gifts. Selfish ambition causes disorder and is rooted in pride, which is contrary to God's nature. If a church has had a history of cliches, factions and disunity, the problem can always be traced back to selfish ambition. James 3:16,17 says -

“...But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.”

Heavenly Father we ask for more of your wisdom in our lives, and Holy Spirit we ask that you would empower us to imitate the humility of Jesus!
