

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.”

2 Corinthians 9:7,8

THOUGHTS FOR THE MONTH

So here’s what I want you to do, God helping you:
Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering.
Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for him.
Don’t become so well-adjusted to your culture that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You’ll be changed from the inside out. Readily recognize what he wants from you, and quickly respond to it. Unlike the culture around you, always dragging you down to its level of immaturity, God brings the best out of you, develops well-formed maturity in you. Romans 12:1-2 (MSG)

We can so easily and unthinkingly lose our godly influence in the world. The culture of the world can influence us so much so that we are in danger of losing our “saltiness” in our vital role as Christ’s ambassadors.

Wherever God has placed us - in the home, education, business, politics, media & the arts, healthcare or the church - we are called to be salt and light by bringing God’s kingdom of love with a servant heart.

To the degree that we take on the attitudes and values of the world, our light is dimmed and we become ineffective as Christ’s ambassadors. So let’s allow our light to shine as we go about our everyday lives!
