

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.”

2 Corinthians 9:7,8

THOUGHTS FOR THE MONTH

GOD'S LESSONS

Sometimes we want the lessons God gives us to be packaged in a lovely gift box... complete with a frilly ribbon on top! However, that doesn't line up with the reality of life as a follower of Jesus.

So what happens when we ignore the lessons God is trying to teach us through circumstances and people in our families/work places/church that we consider difficult?

I believe we miss critical opportunities to discover what our reactions reveal about ourselves, and therefore what requires change so that we become more like Jesus. Rather than seeing circumstances or people in our lives as obstacles to our happiness and becoming resentful, we need to look for the lessons God is wanting to teach us. The bottom line is, God is more interested in our holiness than our happiness.

If we respond the right way to God's lessons, receiving His grace and allowing the Holy Spirit to make the necessary adjustments within us, not only will we have more of Jesus' nature, but we will experience a deep, abiding JOY instead of fleeting happiness. Be careful though, that deep abiding joy just might break out into laughter... don't say I didn't warn you!
