

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.”

2 Corinthians 9:7,8

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES

Chris Cartwright (excerpt from Elim Direction magazine)

Looking back through Elim history, I've been struck by how from the very beginning the early Pentecostal pioneers spoke often about the second coming of Jesus. In fact, when Elim was developing as a movement from 1915, they presented the gospel of Jesus Christ against a backdrop of a World War followed by a paralysing global recession, with the clear message that Jesus not only died for sinners and rose from the dead to bring new life to all who would receive him, but that he was coming again. That message gave them an urgency to tell everyone about Jesus and gave them a perspective on their world and on world events that brought courage, hope and faith even in times of great trouble and even tragedy.

In our own times of shaking, through a global pandemic followed by brutal war, economic uncertainty and social upheaval, we need to hear the words of Jesus from Matthew 24 and 25. Here Jesus prepares his people for challenging times by promising his presence and his power. Yet he goes further. Jesus begins to assure them that even in times of trouble, it is harvest time. God is moving by his Spirit and he will bring people to Himself. He will still save, still heal, still fill with his Spirit those who come to him, and he will be with us.

I know that across our churches and communities we are hearing stories & seeing evidence of people coming to Jesus at the most unexpected times and in unlikely circumstances. We thank God that for him it is still harvest time!
